

About the New Conservatives

In 2019 a New Conservative government was elected with a historic majority. What united the country - north and south, rural and urban - was the Party's offer of a new politics, rooted in Conservative principles but distinct from the politics of the 21st century so far.

The New Conservatism represents a realignment around the values and interests of the majority of the British public. It stands in contrast to the politics of metropolitan opinion.

The New Conservative philosophy can be summed up in the phrase 'common sense for the common good'. We stand for the patriotic, generous and no-nonsense values of the British people, and for policies that will make us a stronger, safer and more united kingdom.

RALLY FOR THE MANIFESTO

We are uniting to campaign for five policy pledges for the next Conservative manifesto.

- 1. Replace Labour's European rights and equalities laws with a new British framework for rights and freedoms.
- 2. Cut taxes for families, small businesses and entrepreneurs.
- 3. Reduce immigration by halving the number of visas awarded to migrant workers, foreign students, and their families.
- 4. Stop students who fail their A-levels from getting taxpayer-funded loans to attend university, and invest in apprenticeships instead.
- 5. Ban gender ideology in schools and ensure parents' rights to oversee the Sex Education their children receive.

Polling by the New Conservatives

The policy pledges have been tested and we know they're popular:

Replace Labour's European rights and equalities laws with a new British framework for rights and freedoms.

Replace the current European system of human rights laws applied in Britain with new British laws that protect rights like free speech but enable the Government to promptly deport illegal migrants.
